Walk Details

This purpose built walking and cycling trail follows the old railway line which served a Bord na Mona turf extraction facility. It crosses the Owenea River (and the Bluestack Waymarked Way at this point), passes through an area of forestry and ends at the remote, but hauntingly beautiful, Lough McHugh.

- Distance: Approximately 2.8 kms
- Time: 1 hours
- Terrain: Purpose built path suitable for walking and cycling.
- Grading: Easy and level for the whole route.
